

Today's most used Topic is Feminism.

Why do we use it so much?

Feminism has the most difficult meaning. Basically, it means equality in men and women.

In general men and women are very different from each other, but the things are If men can do job, be the CEO and a father and no one question about it, then a women can also handle their job and family equally.

What kindly of problem a women faced in publicly -

1. In is society a women can't do a job after child
2. Why women have specific space in public transport
3. Some families don't like women, and they have less important than men.

What do you think am I say wrong, what is your point of view and your opinion?